Dear friends,

Lindsay and I are delighted to host the third annual Bottoms Up ® Invitational to benefit the Colorectal Cancer Alliance — whose mission it is to end colorectal cancer in our lifetime — and we would be thrilled to have your support and participation.

In addition to being an anchor for NBC News and a host of The Today Show, I proudly sit on the Alliance's Board of Directors. This organization is doing incredible work in a field that is near to my heart. We lost my brother, Lawrence Meadows, to colon cancer at the age of 43 just two years ago.

We are hosting this golf tournament as a way to honor Lawrence and advance the Alliance's cause. As the fourth most common and second deadliest cancer in the U.S., far too many families are experiencing the pain of diagnosis and the anguish of loss.

Colorectal cancer is extremely common, deadly, and underfunded. But it's also highly preventable with screening. Through your participation, we can get more people screened, help patients navigate treatment, and fund innovative research to end this disease once and for all. The Alliance does it all.

Last year's event was a huge success! We danced the night away to a one-of-a-kind concert featuring some of our favorite artists and weathered the rain for a round of golf — all while raising more than $1.2 million.

We're crossing our fingers for a beautiful weekend in Fairfield, Connecticut, September 15-16, and looking forward to another unforgettable experience of connecting with friends old and new. All of it in benefit of a critical mission. We hope you'll join us!

Thank you for your consideration, and please let the Alliance staff know how we can get you involved in this life-saving event.

Sincerely,
Craig Melvin and Lindsay Czarniak
